

At The Cross of Jesus

Words: John Eddison
Music: Richard Simpkin

Gently

D D/F# A D D

At the cross of Je - sus I would take my place, drawn by such a
 At the cross of Je - sus, pa - tient - ly he bore bit - ter shame and At the cross of Je - sus par - don is com - plete, love and jus - tice
 At the cross of Je - sus you have set me free, so I come, dear

G D/A G/B A G D/F#

mea - sure of re - deem - ing grace. Fill my heart with sor - row, sor - row, grief and an - guish sore. Through e - ter - nal ag - es, min - gle, truth and mer - cy meet. Though my sins con - demn_ me Sav - iour, yiel - ding all to thee. Let your love pos - sess_ me,

Em G D/A

lift my eyes to see Je - sus Christ my I shall ne - ver know what he had to Je - sus died in - stead, there is full for - so that all may see what your death ac -

G Bm Em A D

Sa - viour cru - ci - fied for me.
 suf - fer, why he loved me so.
 give - ness in the blood he shed.
 com - plished on the cross for me.